

MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

INDEMNITY:

The undersigned companies (hereafter "Indemnitor(s)" as further defined below) agree to indemnify each other against loss or damage any signatory hereto (hereafter the "Indemnitee(s)" as further defined below) may suffer under Indemnitee's owners or loan title insurance policy(ies) (hereafter "Indemnitee's Policy") in reliance upon this Mutual Indemnification Agreement (hereafter the "Agreement") arising by reason of those "POTENTIAL DEFECTS" described below, so long as it reasonably appears that indemnitor previously has issued an owners title policy to the current title holder or a mortgagee title policy to a lender who subsequently has acquired the insured land and is the seller in the current transaction (hereafter the "Indemnitor's Policy") covering some or all of the land insured under Indemnitee's Policy (hereafter the "Land") without exception to the POTENTIAL DEFECTS or affirmatively insure over the POTENTIAL DEFECTS subject, however, to the terms, provisions, and CONDITIONS of the Agreement.

POTENTIAL DEFECTS:

- I. Doubt as to whether the spouse of a prior grantor has a Homestead interest in the Land, as set forth in Section A, below: or
- II. Doubt as to whether a recorded Judgment, Federal Tax Lien or State Tax Lien or Warrant constitutes an unsatisfied lien against the Land, as set forth in Section B, below; or
- III. Doubt as to whether a recorded mortgage or deed of trust has been satisfied or released as a lien against the Land, as set forth in Section C, below.
- IV. Doubt as to whether due process was afforded to certain defendants in court cases involving probate, foreclosure, quiet title or other proceedings as defined under Section D, below.
- V. Doubt as to whether a trustee or attorney in fact had the requisite authority to convey the title to the Property to a bona fide 3rd party purchaser for value.

Section A (Homestead):

Item I, above, shall mean that a deed in the chain of title to the Land, prior to or contemporaneously with the Indemnitor's Policy, does not contain either:

1. Joinder by the spouse of the grantor; or
2. A statement on the deed that the grantor is a single person; or
3. A statement on the deed or other recorded instrument that the Land conveyed by the deed is not the homestead of the grantor.

Section B (Judgments or Federal or State Tax Liens or Warrants):

Item II, above, shall mean a recorded judgment lien(s), from the face of which it appears that the principal is a sum certain, or a recorded Federal tax lien or state tax lien or warrant which may have attached to the Land prior to the date of the Indemnitor's Policy, (hereafter the "Lien(s)") provided:

1. The Lien(s) is not against the insured under the Indemnitor's Policy;
2. The date of the Indemnitor's policy is at least one (1) year old;
3. The face amount of the Lien(s) does not exceed (in the aggregate) $250,000.00;
4. No notice of any proceedings or levy to collect the Lien(s) appear of record;
5. The Lien is not a child support certificate of delinquency.

Section C (Mortgages and Deeds of Trust):

Item III, above shall mean a recorded mortgage(s) or deed(s) of trust which appear(s) of record prior to the date of Indemnitor's Policy provided;

1. There appears no foreclosure proceedings respecting the mortgage or deed of trust; and
2. The mortgage or deed of trust secures a principal amount of not more than $250,000.00 and the Indemnitor's policy is at least one (1) year old; and
3. The mortgage or deed of trust does not appear, from the record, to secure a revolving credit or equity line of credit loan.

Section D (Due Process Issues Arising Out of Past Litigation):

1. Item IV, above shall apply only to court proceedings which predate the date of the Indemnitor's Policy, the policy is at least one (1) year old, and shall mean one or more of the following:

a). Failure to appoint a guardian or attorney ad litem to represent the interest of an absent defendant(s) in a probate, foreclosure, quiet title, partition suit, divorce or other proceeding which has ended in a final judgment affecting title to the Property prior to the issuance of Indemnitor's policy (hereafter referred to as "the Case").

b). Deficiencies in, or the absence of, a diligent search affidavit filed in the case prior to service upon a defendant by publication as may be required by law.

Section E (Trustees and Attorneys in Fact):

Item V, above, shall be deemed to mean a conveyance of the Property, prior to the date of Indemnitor's Policy insuring the current seller or mortgagor of the Property and there appears insufficient or no record notice of the power of authority of the grantor to make the conveyance of the Property provided that there appears no notice of record in the county where the Property lies of any proceeding to attack or set aside the conveyance by the trustee or attorney-in-fact.

CONDITIONS:

The Indemnity provisions of this Mutual Indemnification Agreement are subject to the following conditions:

- a. The agreement is only applicable to policies issued on Mississippi property.
- b. The Indemnitee is not required to authenticate a policy of the Indemnitor that appears valid on its face; however, if requested by the Indemnitor the Indemnitee shall be prepared to provide a copy of the policy on demand as a condition to make a claim under this Agreement.
- c. The liability of the Indemnitor is limited to the face amount and the terms of the Indemnitor's Policy or $250,000.00, whichever is less; and
- d. The Indemnitor shall be notified of a claim under this Agreement, at the address listed below, as if the Indemnitee is an insured claimant under Indemnitor's Policy.
- e. Upon any claim being made under this Agreement, Indemnitor agrees to perform in accordance with the terms hereof, promptly and in good faith; however, until an Indemnitor is notified of a claim hereunder, there is no obligation to take any action allowed or required under the Indemnitor's Policy.

- f. This Agreement may be supplemented or superseded by any specific written indemnity agreements by and between any of these parties hereto and such specific agreements shall not be deemed to suspend, cancel, or otherwise terminate any of the rights or obligations of the parties under this Agreement as to policies which may be written by the Indemnitee in the future; and
- g. This Agreement may be canceled by any party hereto, upon written notice given to all other parties after thirty (30) days from the date of the mailing of such notice. However, it is agreed that such cancellation shall not diminish or impair any of the indemnities arising under this Agreement prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period.
- h. For purposes of this Mutual Indemnity Agreement, an "Indemnitor" is defined as being a signatory to this agreement who is the issuer of either: a) an owners title policy (including, but not limited to a Form A policy) to the transferor or mortgagor of the Property in the current transaction; or b) a loan title policy to a lender who has acquired the title and is the seller in the current transaction. An Indemnitee is defined as the issuer of a title policy to the transferee or mortgagee of the Indemnitor's insured. However, it is understood and agreed that once the relationship of Indemnitor and Indemnitee is established hereunder, it shall continue in force so long as the Indemnitee has liability under its policy or under its Indemnity(ies) to subsequent insurers for a Potential Defect covered by the policy of Indemnitor subject to the limitations of this Agreement.
