		ALTA says: 13. Insured Closing Letters	4/29/2020
New Hampshire N/A N/A N/A not regulated – form or rate 3175100 2018 $25 $25 $25	$25	ALTA SAYS: 15. Insured Closing Letters There is no statutory requirement mandating the issuance of insured closing letters. Nonetheless, insured closing letters, referred to in NH as "cpl"s," are industry standard. According to an Insurance Department Bulletin, 7-7-97, title insurance companies may not use cpls to indemnify lenders or other parties for losses that are unrelated to liens, encumbrances upon, defects in, or the marketability of the title to real property. By issuing a cpl that indemnifies a lender for losses that are unrelated to title, a title insurer would be violating Section 416-A:18 of title 37, which prohibits a title insurance company from engaging in the business of guaranteeing the payment of principal or interest of bonds or other obligations or the transaction of underwriting any other kind of insurance.	4/29/20/20	L.
